The main content area is titled "Filtered Search". On the left, there are filter sections for "Collection Type" (UNC Chapel Hill Collections (2904), Public Collections (2904)), "Classification" (Prints (2903), Sculpture and Installations (2)), and "Contributor" (University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill (2904)). Below these is a "Date" filter with "Start (ex: 1000)" and "End (ex: 2019)" fields, and buttons for "BCE", "CE", "RESET", and "APPLY".

On the right, there is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and a checkbox for "Search within results". Below the search bar is a link for "Advanced Search".

The "Browse Collection" section is titled "Joseph C. Sloane Art Library Collection of Artists' Books and Zines". It includes a description: "The Sloane Art Library—a branch location of UNC-Chapel Hill's University Libraries—holds a diverse collection of artists' publications primarily consisting of artists' books and zines. It is considered a teaching collection supporting instruction in studio art and art history among other disciplines, as well as a robust program of public events and exhibitions. To that end we collect as broadly as possible in order to show users the range of work being produced by artists in book formats. Most items in the collection are available for use inside the library by request. A small selection of artists' books is available in the stacks for circulation." There is a small image of a book cover and a "Less" link.

At the bottom, there is a "Sort: Relevance" dropdown, "Images/page: 48" with a grid icon, and a "Select" button. Below this, it says "2904 results." and shows a row of six image thumbnails with their respective titles and years: "Prayers for Lillian Chason, Cate, author. 2011", "Como construir um ... Leite, Luiza, 1973-2017", "Cat's cradle Chen, Julie. c2013", "Mitogramas (1968-1... Millán, Fernando. [1978?]", "Desván [serie] Mendoza Olivac. Cl... 2016", and "¿Cuánto sabes? : es... [between 2009 and ...]". Each thumbnail has a "PUBLIC" label below it.
